

VOTING TOPICS

Federal Write-In Absentee Ballots (FWABs) Resolution in Virginia:

According the Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP), The State Attorney General for Virginia stated all FWABs sent to local election offices will be counted in the 2008 General Election. The FWABs used as an application and ballot do not need a witness signature or address. FVAP will be releasing communication to the Services after coordinating with the State Board of Elections.